Commissioner reunion highlights PSC event 14 former PSC members to gather for 75th anniversary

FRANKFORT, Ky. (Oct. 13, 2009) – Fourteen former members of the Kentucky Public Service Commission (PSC) have indicated they will attend the PSC's 75th anniversary celebration in Frankfort tomorrow, Oct. 14.

"With the addition of the three current commissioners, this group will represent more than a fourth of the 66 people who have served on the PSC since it was established in 1934," Chairman David Armstrong said. "They span over half of this agency's history."

The former commissioners who have indicated they will attend are:

- John W. Clay – 2006 to 2009
- Caroline Pitt Clark – 2006 to 2008
- Mark David Goss – Chairman – 2004 to 2008
- W. Gregory Coker - 2004 to 2006
- Teresa J. Hill – 2005 to 2006
- Ellen Williams – 2004 to 2005
- Martin J. Huelsmann – Chairman – 2000 to 2004
- Brenda J. Helton – Chairwoman – 1997 to 2000
- Edward J. Holmes – 1995 to 2000
- Robert M. Davis – 1988 to 1997
- Richard S. Taylor – 1975 to 1980 – Chairman from 1979 to 1980
- Barkley J. Sturgill – 1972 to 1979 – Chairman from 1975 to 1979
- Charles H. Lambert – 1977 to 1979
- Wells T. Lovett – 1959 to 1967 – Chairman from 1963 to 1967

Others invited to the event include legislators, other state officials, representatives of regulated utilities and former PSC staff members. The event is open to the public.

The celebration will be held from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. EDT at the PSC offices at 211 Sower Boulevard in Frankfort. A brief program at 1:30 p.m. will be followed by a reception and tours of the building.

The PSC is an independent agency attached for administrative purposes to the Energy and Environment Cabinet. It regulates more than 1,500 gas, water, sewer, electric and telecommunication utilities operating in Kentucky and has approximately 100 employees.
